PRODUCER AGREEMENT (Fixed Products)

This document sets forth the terms of one or more separate Producer Agreements (each, an "Agreement"), between the Producer named below (referred to as "you") and one or more of the following:

Transamerica Financial Life Insurance Company
Transamerica Life Insurance Company
Transamerica Premier Life Insurance Company

(each individually referred to as "we", "us" or "the Company"). If you are appointed with more than one Company, you acknowledge and agree that this Agreement sets forth a separate and distinct agreement between you and each Company with which you are appointed. The rights, obligations, and responsibilities between you and one Company are separate and distinct from the rights, obligations, and responsibilities between you and any other Company with whom you may be appointed. No Company will have responsibility or liability for the acts or omissions of any other Company with whom you may be appointed under this Agreement.

1. APPOINTMENT

We appoint you to sell our Company's fixed products ("Product" or "Products"), as identified in the Commission Rate Schedule ("Schedule") applicable to the type of product involved, pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. You will comply with all applicable laws and regulations of the states in which you sell Products, without limitation, obtaining and maintaining any necessary licenses for the solicitation of insurance and you agree to diligently devote yourself to the business of this appointment under this Agreement.

1.1 TERRITORY; NON-EXCLUSIVITY

Unless otherwise specified by us, you are authorized to solicit applications for our Products in any jurisdiction in which we are licensed to transact insurance and in which you are licensed and authorized to represent us in accordance with applicable state laws and regulations. We reserve the right to limit your territory and/or the Company and/or the Products that you are authorized to represent at any time.

You are not obligated to represent us exclusively, and this Agreement does not give you exclusive rights in any area.

You understand and agree that unless you are licensed in the State of New York and TFLIC is a party to this Agreement, you will not solicit or accept applications within the State of New York. In states other than New York, you agree that you will not solicit or accept any application for a policy to insure a person who is a resident of the State of New York or which is to be owned by a resident of the State of New York or an entity located in the State of New York unless all solicitation and sales activities take place outside the State of New York and comply with our rules and procedures regarding New York residents.

1.2 INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR

You are an independent contractor. Nothing contained in this Agreement is to be construed to create the relation of employer and employee partnership or joint venture between the Company and you. You may exercise your own judgment as to the time and manner in which you may perform the services required to be performed by you under this Agreement. We may, from time to time, prescribe rules and regulations concerning the conduct of the business covered by this Agreement which do not interfere with such freedom of action.

2. SOLICITATION OF APPLICATIONS

We will inform you from time to time which Products you are authorized to sell. Solicitation of applications for insurance authorized under this Agreement will be performed by you or by Assigned Producers or Solicitors in accordance with the terms of their agreements with us.

An Assigned Producer is a person who has been designated by us to solicit applications for insurance under your direction. A Solicitor is a person who has been designated by us to solicit applications for insurance under your direction who is compensated solely by you.

2.1 PRODUCERS

You may recommend that we enter into sales agreements with other producers for sale of our Products, but we are not obligated to do so. We will not enter into such an agreement unless you and we agree regarding whether the recommended person will be designated as an Assigned Producer or Solicitor. You have no authority to modify or amend any such agreement.

At our option, we may refuse to contract with or appoint any proposed producer and may terminate any agreement with or appointment of a producer. Except as otherwise agreed, payment of all commissions, expense allowances and other compensation (collectively referred to herein as "commissions") earned by Assigned Producers will be made directly by the Company.

From time to time, we may prescribe rules regarding the transfer of Assigned Producers or Solicitors.

2.2 LICENSING

Neither you nor any Assigned Producer or Solicitor may engage in any activities under this Agreement unless and until you or they are properly licensed and appointed to perform such services in the particular state or jurisdiction involved in accordance with all applicable laws and regulations, including, but not limited to, any certification or continuing education requirements.

You agree to undertake and pay for all actions necessary to acquire and maintain any necessary licenses for yourself. We will take the necessary actions, including the payment of applicable fees, to appoint you to represent us in the state in which you reside. We will appoint you to represent us in additional states at your expense.

2.3 NON-REPLACEMENT COVENANTS

While this Agreement is in effect and for a period of two (2) years after termination of this Agreement, you agree that you will not encourage, aid or abet any other insurer or broker-dealer, or their customers, clients, employees, agents or registered representatives, to engage in a pattern or practice of replacing or attempting to replace any of the Company's products with fixed or variable products of other life insurance companies.

3. RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE PRODUCER

You are responsible for the actions and performance of your employees and producers in connection with this Agreement. The Company may, from time to time, notify you of laws, governmental regulations and the Company's rules and regulations which may be applicable to your activities or the activities of producers who act through you. You agree to promptly communicate this information to your employees and producers, as appropriate. You are responsible for your employee's and producers' compliance with all laws and regulations, regardless of whether we provided notice. To the extent they do not conflict with the terms of this Agreement, you will conform to the rules and regulations of the Company now or hereafter in force. You are responsible for your employees' and producers' compliance with all Company rules and regulations. You agree to review policy applications submitted through you, and you agree to notify the Company if you become aware of actions by employees or producers (including you) which violate laws, governmental regulations or the Company's rules and regulations. You agree to notify the Company if you learn of the conviction of you or any of your employees or producers of any felony or other serious crimes. The Company agrees that it will not hold you liable for any matter of which you were not aware and of which you could not reasonably have been expected to have been aware in the normal course of your business activities. This provision shall not be construed to alter the independent contractor relationship of the parties as provided in this Agreement.

3.1 LIMITATION OF AUTHORITY

You will not alter, modify, waive or change any of the terms, rates or conditions of any advertisements, receipts, or products of the Company in any respect. You will not use any advertising or sales material relating directly or indirectly to the Company or the Company's products unless it is provided by the Company or approved by the Company in writing prior to use. You have no authority to obligate us in any manner whatsoever nor to receive monies due to us, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement or as may be authorized in writing by us.

3.2 COMPANY RECORDS

All documents, records, software and other data and information, in whatever form they may be, which pertain to the Company's policyholders or any other business of the Company, are and will remain the property of the Company. Any such property in your possession shall be at any time and all times open to inspection by the Company or its authorized representative(s), and upon termination of this Agreement you will promptly turn all such property over to the Company or its authorized representatives.

You acknowledge that all documents, records, software and other data, information and supplies referred to in this Section 3.2 are confidential and proprietary to the Company, and you agree to preserve the confidentiality and privacy of the Company in all of the same; and you further agree that you will not, without the Company's prior written consent, release or disclose any of the same or their contents to any person, or otherwise use any of the same or their contents in any manner, except in furtherance of the business of this Agreement or as required by legal process.

Nothing contained in this Section (3.2) is intended to restrict your right to retain possession of your records and other materials relating solely to your Assigned Producers and Solicitors.

3.3 COLLECTION AND REMITTANCE OF COMPANY MONEY

Where authorized by us, you may accept premiums in accordance with our rules and regulations in force at the time of payment. We have the right at any time to revoke such authority in whole or in part and to limit it in any way. ALL MONIES OR SECURITIES RECEIVED BY YOU AS FULL OR PARTIAL PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS OR FOR ANY OTHER ITEM WITHOUT EXCEPTION, SHALL BE HELD BY YOU IN TRUST SEPARATE FROM YOUR OWN OR OTHER FUNDS AND WILL BE IMMEDIATELY DELIVERED AND PAID TO THE COMPANY. Such remittances must be applied to the relevant item. You are not authorized to deposit any such monies or checks in your own account or any trust account, nor to accept any check made payable to you for any premium or other item.

You will promptly remit to the Company any and all monies received on behalf of the Company as payments on Products, and you have no right or authority to receive or collect monies for and on behalf of the Company at any time or for any purpose except the initial premium necessary to put the Product in force.

3.4 ADVERTISING

You agree that you will not place into use, or distribute to any person, any advertising, sales material or other document (including, without limitation, illustrations, telephone scripts and training materials) referring directly or indirectly to the Company or to any company product, or cause, authorize or permit any producer or other person to do so, without our prior written consent. You agree that you will not use the name of the Company on any business card, letterhead or marquee or in any directory listing, or in any other manner, or cause, authorize or permit any producer or other person to do so, without our prior written consent. You agree that you will not use any of the Company's names, logos or trademarks without our prior written consent.

3.5 INDEMNIFICATION

You agree unconditionally to indemnify and hold us harmless the Company and each of the Company's directors, officers, affiliates, stockholders, employees and representatives from any liability, loss, claim, regulatory proceeding, regulatory investigation, damage, cost or expense (including legal and other expenses and attorneys' fees reasonably incurred), in each case to the extent arising from, related to or based upon the breach of any provision of this Agreement by you or your employees, officers, agents or other persons who act on your behalf or the negligence or misconduct of you or any of your employees, officers, agents or other persons who act on your behalf.

3.6 ERRORS AND OMISSIONS

Failure to maintain, at your own expense, errors and omissions insurance covering your activities under this agreement will be deemed a material breach of this agreement. The amount of coverage shall not be less than that specified by us from time to time. You shall provide us with satisfactory written evidence of such errors and omissions insurance upon our request.

3.7(a) ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING

You must comply with all applicable anti-money laundering laws, rules, regulations and government guidance, including any reporting, recordkeeping and compliance requirements. These include requirements to identify and report currency transactions and suspicious activity, to verify customer identity and to conduct customer due diligence. In addition to applicable laws, the Company has implemented an anti-money laundering program which includes requirements for reporting suspicious activity and providing anti-money laundering training to the Company's employees, insurance agents, and insurance brokers. You agree to comply with the Company's anti-money laundering policies and reporting and training requirements.

3.7(b) ELECTRONIC IMAGING AND TRANSMISSION OF DOCUMENTS AND INFORMATION

You agree to comply with the Company's requirements for electronic imaging and transmission of documents.

3.7(c) SUITABILITY

You agree to comply with all applicable laws, regulations and Company policies pertaining to requirements that Products be suitable for the purchaser.

4. COMPANY RIGHT OF ACTION

We are not obligated to accept any business produced by you or by any individual or entity associated with you, including an Assigned Producer or Solicitor. We may reject applications for insurance without specifying the reason or cancel any policy for any reason and return the premium. We may contact any applicant, owner, or insured directly or indirectly for any purpose, including the purpose of marketing other products of ours or of our affiliates, to allow our affiliates to do the same, and to provide information about any applicant, owner or insured to our affiliates for such purpose. In addition to all other rights reserved to us in this Agreement, we reserve the right, in our sole discretion and without notice to you, to do any of the following:

- (i) modify, amend, or change any policy form and/or premium rate;
- (ii) fix or change maximum and minimum limits on the amount for which any policy form may be issued;
- (iii) modify or alter the conditions or terms under which any policy form may be sold or regulate its sale in any way;
- (iv) discontinue or withdraw any policy form from any or all geographic area(s) or market segment(s), without prejudice to continuation of such form in any other area or market segment;
- (v) cease doing business in any area;
- (vi) reduce or otherwise adjust commissions on conversions, exchanges, replacements or other similar requests;
- (vii) modify any Schedule or Exhibit under this Agreement from time to time by publishing, either in writing or electronically, a revised Schedule or Exhibit, which shall govern new applications for Products executed on or after the date specified in the revised Schedule or Exhibit; (viii) determine the method, frequency and minimum threshold amount for commissions payments and statements; and/or
- (ix) revise our rules which by this reference are made part of this Agreement.

5. COMPENSATION

General – The applicable “Schedule” means the Commission Rate Schedule or any other documentation setting forth the rates for the types of products involved published by us from time to time for the type of Product involved. Commission Rate Schedules are subject to change without notice. Copies may be obtained at any time.

For each Product sold by you, we will pay you commissions as set forth in the applicable Schedule less any amount paid to Assigned Producers for which you are directly or indirectly responsible. You may also be eligible for compensation under other programs established by us from time to time. Payment of commissions will be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and to our rules and regulations in effect from time to time. Such rules and regulations may be changed by us at any time without notice and without your consent.

The commissions and any other compensation payable by us to you will be payment in full for all services performed by you. Except as we may otherwise agree, you are not entitled to reimbursement for any expenses incurred by you.

5.1 PAYMENT OF COMMISSIONS AND OTHER COMPENSATION

Repayment of Commissions – If any commission or other compensation to which you are not entitled under the terms of this Agreement is paid to or retained by you, you will pay the same to the Company upon demand. If we refund premium or return policy values or waive surrender charges on any policies for any reason, then no commissions will be payable with respect to said premiums and any commissions previously paid must be returned to us. In case of any provision requiring a refund of commissions or other compensation, we may, at our election, debit your account for the amount of the refund without demand or notice, or may demand the refund, or both, but debiting your account in such manner will not relieve you of your obligation to make the refund.

Policyholder Service – If you are unwilling or unable to provide an acceptable level of service to any policyholder, you will not be entitled to continued commissions with respect to such policyholder.

Changes in Compensation – We reserve the right to modify the Schedules under this Agreement by publishing from time to time revised Schedules; such revised Schedules will govern new business applications executed on or after the date specified in the revised Schedules.

When Due – Commissions will be paid in accordance with our normal commission processing schedule. Commissions will be payable only on premiums paid and applied to and accepted by us on policies which were produced by you. No premium will be considered paid and applied to the Company until it has been actually collected and transmitted to us and recorded on our records. Commissions and other compensation will accrue only as such premiums otherwise would become due. Premiums may include fees or charges that are not commissionable.

Commissions Paid in Advance – If we pay you a commission or other compensation on a premium which is or becomes due but which has not yet actually been paid to the Company, and if such premium is not paid and applied to the Company, you will refund any commission or other compensation which you have received on such premium.

Split Commissions – If an application for a Product is procured by you and other agents of the Company, the commission will be divided among you and the other agents as indicated in the new business application unless the Company receives written instructions to the contrary signed by you and each other agent.

Conditions – Commissions and any other compensation under this Agreement will be payable to you only if and so long as you are in existence and are continuously and properly licensed and appointed in accordance with applicable state laws and regulations to transact insurance business for us and we may legally pay such commissions and other compensation.

Accounting Year – We reserve the right at any time and from time to time, without notice to you, to change the period comprising our accounting year or subdivisions thereof.

Securities Products – We will not pay commissions to you for selling our securities products that are listed in an agreement that is in effect between the Company, its principal underwriter, and a broker-dealer of which you are a registered representative, except that we may elect to do so if we are an affiliate of your broker-dealer. In the event that your broker-dealer requires fixed product commissions to be paid directly to the broker-dealer, commissions due under this Agreement will be paid to the broker-dealer. In either case, payment by us to your broker-dealer will fully discharge us of our obligations with respect thereto.

Your Account – We will provide you with periodic statements of your account. If the net amount due to you at any time is less than the amount specified by us from time to time, commissions will not be paid until this amount is reached.

Replacement – The Company may choose whether to pay the same commissions on the conversion of term life insurance to another product as it would pay on a new product sale. The Company may choose whether to pay commissions on a reinstated product to the producer responsible for the reinstatement or the producer who originally sold the product, and may pay overriding commissions accordingly. The Company will determine the commissions, if any, that the Company may pay to you with respect to a product that the Company issues on an insured within 12 months after a halt in the payment of premiums on a product previously issued by the Company or one of its affiliates on the same insured, or within 12 months after the previously issued product of the Company or its affiliate lapses or is surrendered in whole or in part.

5.2 VESTING

Unless otherwise provided in a Schedule, all commissions shall cease ten years following the date of issue of the Product. We may stop paying commissions earlier upon our determination that you:

- (i) failed to comply with our rules and regulations or the laws of any applicable state or jurisdiction or regulations of the Department of Insurance thereof; or
- (ii) failed to conform to the terms and conditions of this Agreement or any other existing or future agreement with us; or
- (iii) have been convicted of a felony or any state or jurisdiction revokes, suspends or fails to renew your license to sell insurance; or
- (iv) committed any illegal, dishonest or fraudulent acts in connection with any business of ours; or
- (v) engaged in a pattern or practice of inducing or attempting to induce any policyholders to discontinue the payment of premiums on or to release or surrender policies and products in the Company whether or not covered by this Agreement; or
- (vi) have so conducted yourself as to injure our standing or good name in the community or elsewhere.

6. LIEN AND OFFSETS

You grant us a first lien on all commissions and any other compensation payable by us to you under this Agreement or under any other existing or future agreement with us, as security for the payment of any existing or future debit balance or other indebtedness of yours to us. We may at any time and from time to time, with or without notice or judicial action, exercise our lien by offsetting such indebtedness against any commissions and other compensation otherwise due to you under this Agreement or under any agreement between you and us or one of our affiliates. These liens shall not be extinguished by the termination of this Agreement or any other agreement.

All debit balances and other indebtedness of yours to us will be debited to your commission account, but debiting your commission account will not relieve you of your obligation to repay the indebtedness. You may not offset against any such indebtedness any compensation accrued or to accrue under this Agreement or under any other agreement with us.

You will be liable to us for payment of any debit balance of an Assigned Producer, whether or not incurred by reason of a wrongful act of the Assigned Producer, including indebtedness incurred in connection with the conduct of business under this Agreement. All debit balances or other indebtedness owed to the Company by an Assigned Producer will be debited to the Assigned Producer's commission account.

In the event we recover from you any debit balance or other indebtedness of an Assigned Producer, we will, upon request, assign to you our rights against the Assigned Producer with respect to such debit balance or other indebtedness to enable you to pursue recovery from the Assigned Producer.

While an Assigned Producer has a debit balance for which you are responsible, we will not pay any commissions or other compensation on business produced by the Assigned Producer while operating under your supervision which may accrue to the Assigned Producer's commission account without your consent. At any time in our sole discretion, we may debit your commission account with the debit balance of the commission account of any Assigned Producer, and such action may be taken whether or not we have endeavored to secure payment of the debit balance from the Assigned Producer. If we elect to debit your commission account with the debit balance of an Assigned Producer's commission account, then any credit thereafter accruing to such Assigned Producer's commission account will in like manner be reflected as a credit to your commission account.

We will be under no obligation to pay any commissions or other compensation to you, your heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, under this Agreement or under any other existing or future agreement with us now or hereafter existing as long as your commission account has a debit balance. Any debit balance of your commission account shall be payable to us upon demand and shall bear interest, payable monthly, at the rate declared by us from time to time. Any future change in interest rate may, at our option, be applied to the then remaining balance of any debit balance theretofore created as well as to debit balances thereafter created.

7. DISPUTES AND LITIGATION

All parties agree to cooperate fully with each other in the resolution of all matters arising out of the business of this Agreement.

7.1 COMPLAINTS, CLAIMS AND OTHER MATTERS

You agree to notify us promptly of any complaint, claim or dispute involving an applicant, Product, policyholder or producer. You shall notify us immediately upon your receipt of any subpoena, summons or other notice of suit or any regulatory authority inquiry with respect to any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including your disqualification to sell insurance) and shall include with such notice a copy of any documents you receive.

You will not litigate any dispute with an applicant or policyholder, on any matter relating to the business of this Agreement, without our prior written consent.

We may settle any claim against us or you arising out of the business of this Agreement.

7.2 EXPRESS WAIVERS

WAIVER OF DAMAGES. EACH PARTY KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY AND INTENTIONALLY WAIVES ANY CLAIM TO RECOVER PUNITIVE, EXTRA-CONTRACTUAL, EXEMPLARY AND NON-COMPENSATORY DAMAGES AGAINST THE OTHER PARTY.

WAIVER OF RIGHT TO JURY TRIAL: EACH PARTY KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY, AND INTENTIONALLY WAIVES THE RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY A JURY WITH RESPECT TO ANY LITIGATION ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO (I) THIS AGREEMENT, OR (II) (TO THE EXTENT NOT SPECIFICALLY SUBJECT TO A SEPARATE WRITTEN AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE PARTIES) THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE PARTIES TO THIS AGREEMENT.

7.3 LIMITATIONS

The parties agree that, to the greatest extent allowed by law, any claim, suit or other proceeding (whether sounding in contract, tort or otherwise) arising out of or relating to (i) this Agreement or (ii) the relationship between the parties, must be brought within four (4) years after the date on which the action constituting the basis for any such claim occurred.

8. TERMINATION AND SUSPENSION

You or we may terminate this Agreement at any time, with or without cause, immediately upon notice as provided in this Agreement. Your death, bankruptcy or dissolution will automatically terminate this Agreement.

Upon notice to you, we may suspend your authority to act under this Agreement.

From time to time, we may establish minimum production requirements applicable to this Agreement.

9. NOTICES AND COMMUNICATIONS

All notices and other binding communications under this Agreement, including amendments, must be in writing and shall be deemed to be validly given if sent by mail, fax, or by email to the other party at the most recent email address, fax number or address provided by the other party. In addition, notice shall be considered validly given if published by us on any website we use to communicate with you. Either party may change its address for notices and communications by notifying the other party in accordance with this section.

10. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Certain provisions of this Agreement are emphasized for the convenience of the reader. Nevertheless, all provisions apply equally. The headings and titles of paragraphs contained in this Agreement are for convenience only and have no effect upon the construction or interpretation of any part of this Agreement.

10.1 ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Agreement (including all Exhibits and Schedules hereto) contains the entire agreement between the parties as to matters set forth herein and supersedes any prior or contemporaneous understandings or agreements with respect to such matters.

10.2 AMENDMENTS

We reserve the right to amend this Agreement from time to time by providing at least thirty (30) days' prior written or electronic notice to you of the terms and provisions of any such amendment, and you shall be deemed to have agreed to such amendment unless we have received your written objection within fifteen (15) days after the date our written or electronic notice was sent. We will not be bound by any amendment, promise, agreement, understanding or representation regarding the Agreement unless the same is made by an instrument in writing, or an electronic copy of a writing specifically sent by us to you electronically, and signed by one of our officers, which expresses by its terms an intention to modify the Agreement.

We reserve the right to modify any Schedule or Exhibit under the Agreement from time to time by publishing, either in writing or electronically, a revised Schedule or Exhibit, which shall govern new applications for Products executed on or after the date specified in the revised Schedule or Exhibit.

10.3 NO IMPLIED WAIVERS

No failure to exercise or delay in exercising any right or provision of this Agreement, or to insist upon strict performance of its terms, shall constitute a waiver. No waiver of any right or provision under this Agreement shall be construed as a further or continuing waiver of such right, or as a waiver of any other right. Acceptance by the Company of performance by you while you are in breach of this Agreement shall not constitute a waiver of any right or remedy the Company may have regarding such breach or any other breach of this Agreement. Any waiver must be in writing and signed by the party granting it. Any waiver by the Company must be signed by the Company's president or vice president.

10.4 AGREEMENT NON-ASSIGNABLE

You may not assign this Agreement or any of your rights, obligations, authorities and benefits provided hereunder without our prior written consent.

10.5 SEVERABILITY

The provisions of this Agreement are severable. It is the intention of the parties that the provisions of this Agreement shall be enforced to the extent permitted under applicable law. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application of this Agreement to any person or circumstance, is deemed invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement and the application of its provisions to any other person or circumstance shall not be affected. The understandings in this paragraph will not apply to the sale of any products for which I have entered into a separate agreement with the Company.

- d. I will not alter, modify, waive or change any of the terms, rates or conditions of any advertisements, receipts, policies or contracts of the Company in any respect. I will not use any advertising or sales material relating directly or indirectly to the Company or the Company's products unless it is provided by the Company or approved by the Company in writing prior to use.
- e. I will deliver any policy sent to me within thirty (30) days from the postmark date such policy is mailed by the Company.
- f. I will promptly remit to the Company any and all monies received by me on behalf of the Company as payments on life insurance policies, and I have no right or authority to receive or collect monies for and on behalf of the Company at any time or for any purpose except the initial premium necessary to put the insurance policy in force. All monies or securities received by me as full or partial payment of premiums or for any other item without exception, shall be held by me in trust separate from my own or other funds and will be immediately delivered and paid to the Company.
- g. The Company may, with or without cause and without liability to me whatsoever, cancel my appointment at any time, and upon termination of this Agreement I will immediately deliver to the Company all records, sales and advertising material, stationery, business cards, computer software and other supplies connected with the Company's business.
- h. I will comply with the Company's Code of Professional Conduct for Producers and Employees as it may be amended from time to time. I understand and agree to the following policies.
- i. I will comply with all applicable laws and regulations to protect the privacy of nonpublic information that I have about an applicant, owner, insured, beneficiary, or other person who seeks to obtain, obtains or has obtained a product or service from the Company. AMENDMENT TO AGREEMENT(S)

This Amendment modifies each and every contract or agreement you have with Transamerica Financial Life Insurance Company, Transamerica Life Insurance Company, and/or Transamerica Premier Life Insurance Company, or any of their predecessors (each individually referred to as “the Company”) regarding the sale of insurance or financial services products or services. The following provisions are hereby added to such Agreement(s);

A. Privacy and Confidentiality Generally

- (i) Except to the extent directly required to perform your services under this Agreement, you shall hold in strictest confidence and not disclose to any Person or use, at any time, whether during or after the termination of this Agreement, any information that we disclose or make available to you that is confidential or proprietary (“Information”). Without limiting your obligations under the previous sentence, you shall apply at least the same standard of care to protect the confidentiality of the Information as you use to protect your own confidential information. Upon termination of this Agreement, you shall return or securely destroy all Information without retaining any copies and shall provide us with your written and signed certification to that effect. All Information is our sole and exclusive property.
- (ii) If you are requested to disclose Information pursuant to a subpoena or order from a governmental authority (including any department of insurance), you shall (A) notify us as promptly as possible, and in any event prior to responding thereto, of the terms of and circumstances relating to such request, (B) consult with us on the advisability of attempting to resist or narrow such request, and (C) if disclosure of Information is required, furnish only such Information as our counsel advises us you are legally obligated to disclose and cooperate with us to obtain assurance that the disclosed Information will be held in confidence. You also shall comply with our privacy and security rules that we have provided to you in writing.

B. Compliance with GLBA – You shall comply with the privacy requirements of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act and its rules and regulations as any of the same may be amended or superseded from time to time (“GLBA”). Compliance with GLBA includes the following:

- (i) You may use or disclose Nonpublic Personal Financial Information only to perform your services under this Agreement, as specifically provided in Section F(iii) below, or as required by law. “Nonpublic Personal Financial Information” means personally identifiable financial information and includes any list, description, or other grouping of consumers (and publicly available information pertaining to them) that is derived using any nonpublic personal information; provided, however, that the above definition shall be superseded and replaced to the extent that the definition of Nonpublic Personal Financial Information under Title V of Public Law 106-102, Section 509, subsection (4), as the same may be amended or superseded from time to time, differs from this definition.
- (ii) You shall maintain appropriate administrative, physical and technical safeguards to prevent prohibited uses or disclosures of Nonpublic Personal Financial Information.
- (iii) You shall require that your sub-agents, directors, officers, and employees who have access to Nonpublic Personal Financial Information agree in writing to the same restrictions and conditions that apply to you.

C. ACE Designation under HIPAA –You acknowledge that the health care components of the Companies (such health care components collectively, the “Covered Entity”), have elected to adopt Affiliated Covered Entity (“ACE”) status, as defined and permitted under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and its rules and regulations as any of the same may be amended or superseded from time to time (“HIPAA”), such designation has been appropriately adopted and documented, and any Company is authorized to enter into a Business Associates Agreement on behalf of some or all other members of such ACE. To the extent the HIPAA covered health care component of any such member of the ACE merges with another affiliate or undergoes a corporate name change, this Agreement shall apply to any such merged and/or renamed component/company.

D. Compliance with HIPAA – You shall comply with the privacy and security requirements of HIPAA. Compliance with HIPAA includes the following:

- (i) You may use or disclose Protected Health Information only to perform your services under this Agreement, for the proper management and administration of your business (other than for cross-marketing and/or cross-selling of other policies or products, which are prohibited except to the extent specifically provided in Section F(iii) below), to carry out your legal responsibilities, or otherwise as required by law. "Protected Health Information" has the same meaning as the term "protected health information" in 45 C.F.R. §164.501 (as the same may be amended or superseded from time to time), limited to information that you create or that you receive from us or on our behalf, and includes information that relates to the past, present, or future physical or mental health or condition of a Policyholder, to the provision of health care to a Policyholder, or to the past, present, or future payment for the provision of health care to a Policyholder, and that identifies the Policyholder or for which there is a reasonable basis to believe that the information can be used to identify the Policyholder, in each case regardless of whether the Policyholder is living or deceased. By way of illustration only, the following information shall constitute Protected Health Information with respect to a Policyholder: (A) name, (B) street address, city, county, precinct, and zip code, (C) dates directly related to the Policyholder, including birth date, admission date, discharge date, and date of death, (D) telephone numbers, fax numbers, and electronic mail addresses, (E) social security number, (F) medical record numbers, (G) health plan beneficiary numbers, (H) account numbers, (I) certificate/license numbers, (J) vehicle identifiers and serial numbers, including license plate numbers, and (K) any other unique identifying numbers, characteristics, or codes.
- (ii) You may not use or disclose Protected Health Information in any manner that would constitute a violation of 45 C.F.R. Parts 160 and 164 if we used or disclosed the information in the same manner.
- (iii) You shall comply with our request to accommodate a Policyholder's access to his or her Protected Health Information as provided by 45 C.F.R. §164.524.
- (iv) You shall comply with our request to amend Protected Health Information in accordance with a Policyholder's request as provided by 45 C.F.R. § 164.526.
- (v) You shall keep a record of disclosures of or access to Protected Health Information that must be provided under HIPAA to an individual to whom the Protected Health Information relates. You shall comply with any request that we make to provide us with information pertaining to such disclosures or access in such format as we reasonably may request. Such provided information shall include the content as required under HIPAA.
- (vi) You shall make your internal practices, books, and records relating to uses and disclosures of Protected Health Information available to us (or to our designee) and to the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (the "Secretary"), or to the Secretary's designee, for the purpose of confirming your compliance and/or our compliance with 45 C.F.R. Parts 160 and 164.
- (vii) Upon termination of this Agreement, if feasible, you shall return or destroy all Protected Health Information without retaining any copies and shall provide us with your written and signed certification to that effect. If such return or destruction is not feasible, you shall limit all further uses and disclosures to those purposes that make such return or destruction of the Protected Health Information not feasible.
- (viii) You shall maintain appropriate administrative, physical and technical safeguards to prevent prohibited uses or disclosures, and to protect the confidentiality, integrity and availability, of any Protected Health Information that you create, receive, maintain or transmit. Such safeguards shall include development, implementation, and maintenance of a comprehensive written information security program compliant with applicable laws and designed to (A) protect the integrity and confidentiality of Protected Health Information, (B) protect against anticipated threats or hazards to the security, confidentiality and/or integrity of Protected Health Information, (C) protect against any unauthorized disclosure or use of Protected Health Information, (D) address computer and network security, (E) address physical security, and (F) provide for the secure disposal and destruction of Protected Health Information.
- (ix) You shall ensure that any subcontractors (as defined in 45 C.F.R. § 160.101) that create, receive, maintain, or transmit Protected Health Information on your behalf agree to the same restrictions and conditions that apply to you with respect to such information. You agree to enter into appropriate written agreements outlining these obligations and to obtain satisfactory assurances (as that term is contemplated in HIPAA) of such compliance by all subcontractors. To the extent you make disclosures under 45 C.F.R. § 164.504(e)(4), you will obtain reasonable assurances that PHI will be held in confidence and will not be used or disclosed outside of the intended purpose.

- (x) To the extent that we may require you to carry out ACE Entities' obligations in accordance with the Agreement, under 45 C.F.R. § 164 Subpart E, you will comply with the requirements of that Subpart which apply to ACE Entities in the performance of such obligations.
- (xi) You shall require that your directors, officers, and employees who have access to Protected Health Information agree to the same restrictions and conditions that apply to you with respect to such information.

E. Compliance with HITECH Act

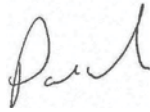

- (i) You agree and acknowledge that you are directly subject to HIPAA as amended by the HITECH Act, including, without limitation, Sections 164.308, 164.310, 164.312 and 164.316 thereof, including its provisions relating to security and privacy of Protected Health Information as well as its enforcement and penalty provisions. You agree that you will (A) comply with all applicable security and privacy provisions of HIPAA as amended by the HITECH Act and as it may be amended from time to time; (B) not act in any way to interfere with or hinder the ACE Entities' ability to comply with HIPAA as amended by the HITECH Act and as it may be amended from time to time; and (C) use your best efforts to notify the ACE Entities without unreasonable delay and in any event within three (3) business days of discovering a "breach," as the term "breach" is defined in 45 C.F.R. § 164.402, and as the terms "breach" and "discover" are further described in 45 C.F.R. § 164.410(a)(2).
- (ii) In the event either party learns of a pattern of activity or practice of the other party that constitutes a material breach or violation of its obligations relating to Protected Health Information under the Agreement, the non-breaching party will take reasonable steps to cure the breach or end the violation. If such steps are unsuccessful, the non-breaching party will terminate the Agreement, if feasible, or if termination is not feasible, report the problem to the Secretary. We reserve the right, in our sole discretion, to terminate this Agreement immediately upon notice in the event of any such material breach or security incident.
- (iii) You acknowledge and agree to adhere to any limitations on the disclosure and/or sale of Protected Health Information as required under 45 C.F.R. § 164.508(d) and/or under HIPAA.

F. Additional Provisions Relating to Confidentiality Generally, GLBA, and HIPAA

- (i) In response to an unsolicited direct Policyholder, Certificateholder, or Consumer inquiry, you may disclose Nonpublic Personal Financial Information and Protected Health Information directly to, and may discuss such information directly with, the Policyholder, Certificateholder, or Consumer to whom such information pertains, provided that such disclosure would not violate HIPAA if we made it.
- (ii) We acknowledge that you may have relationships with affinity groups and associations and that, as a result, you may receive information ("Group Member Information") relating to their members (each a "Group Member") that constitutes Nonpublic Personal Financial Information and/or Protected Health Information. You and we agree that a Group Member's Group Member Information shall constitute Nonpublic Personal Financial Information and/or Protected Health Information only from and after the time that a Group Member applies for a Policy.
- (iii) You may use Information, Nonpublic Personal Financial Information and/or Protected Health Information for cross-marketing and/or cross-selling of other policies or products to the extent, but only to the extent, that the Policyholder to whom such information pertains has authorized you specifically in a writing that complies with HIPAA to do so and such marketing and selling is conducted in adherence with the restrictions on marketing and sale of PHI as provided under HIPAA.
- (iv) Any ambiguity in this Agreement shall be resolved in favor of a meaning that permits compliance with GLBA and HIPAA.

- (v) You shall notify us in writing without unreasonable delay and in any event within three (3) business days after becoming aware of a violation of Sections B, E, or F of this Agreement, or of the occurrence of a "security incident," as defined in 45 C.F.R. §164.304. You agree to cooperate fully with us in any security-incident investigation or resolution and agree that no notifications or communications to any individual(s), media outlets, state or federal regulatory authorities, or other third parties regarding the incident shall be made without in each instance our specific prior written consent.
- (vi) You shall comply with all applicable state and local laws and regulations enacted to protect the privacy of individual personal information.
- (vii) We can further amend this Amendment to Agreement without your consent to reflect (i) future amendments of GLBA or HIPAA, or (ii) court orders interpreting the application of GLBA or HIPAA, or (iii) a material change in our business practices, but any such amendment shall be enforceable against you only after we have notified you.

Agreement for Commission Annualization

(Please Type or Print in Ink)

Producer TIN / SSN

Office ID Code

Name (For entities: provide complete legal name)

By signing below, the producer requests that Transamerica Financial Life Insurance Company, Transamerica Life Insurance Company, and/or Transamerica Premier Life Insurance Company (each individually referred to as the "Company") make payments to the producer under a commission annualization program (the "Annualization Program"). This Agreement for Commission Annualization (the "agreement") sets forth the producer's duties and obligations with respect to the Annualization Program. Under the Annualization Program, the Company may pay commissions to the producer based on the projected first year annual premiums for policies sold by the Company through applications solicited by the producer when actual premium received by the Company may be less than a full annual premium. The producer acknowledges and understands that commissions paid based on premium payments not actually received by the Company constitute an advance payment against commissions which are anticipated to be earned by the producer if and when the remainder of the first year annual premium is received by the Company.

In addition to the terms and conditions of the applicable selling and/or producer agreement(s) with the Company (collectively, the "Producer Agreement"), the producer understands and agrees that:

1. Only policies placed in force after the date this agreement is approved by the Company will be eligible for annualization payments. Notification of approval will be provided in writing once the agreement is approved by the Company.
2. The producer hereby authorizes the Company to obtain a consumer credit report and conduct an investigation concerning the producer's character, credit, reputation and personal traits, and releases those contacted and the Company from any liability with respect to the content of the information provided and any resulting action by the Company. The producer authorizes the Company to share any personal information regarding the producer with its affiliated companies and to obtain updated or further credit reports if it so chooses at any time that this agreement is in effect or, after its termination, if any amount advanced hereunder remains unpaid. The producer understands that he or she may not be permitted to participate in the Annualization Program if he or she is delinquent in obligations to creditors, or if he or she is subject to any unpaid or unsatisfied judgment, liens, or similar matters.
3. Termination of this agreement does not terminate the Producer Agreement with the Company. However, termination of the Producer Agreement with the Company terminates this agreement and notice is not specifically required.
4. The Company may terminate this agreement without notice, in its sole discretion.
5. The producer agrees that in the event the full annual premium is not received by the Company within 12 months of the issuance of the policy or in sufficient time to prevent lapse of the policy, whichever is sooner, the Company shall have the right to charge the producer's commission account for the amount of commission paid on premium not received by the Company.
6. The producer agrees that amounts charged to his or her commission account pursuant to the foregoing may be deducted from amounts owed to the producer at such time or thereafter by the Company. The producer understands that the Company in its sole and absolute discretion may determine the amounts to be advanced under the Annualization Program and may modify or terminate the Annualization Program at any time. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the producer acknowledges and agrees that the Company may, in its sole discretion and from time to time, modify the persistency, production, and/or other requirements to remain eligible for the Annualization Program, as well as the percentages to be advanced and the limit on total advances. In the event of termination of the Annualization Program, any amounts advanced thereunder which have not been earned will be immediately due and payable by the producer. If payment in full is demanded, the producer agrees to pay interest on the unpaid balance on the advanced amount due.

Anti-Money Laundering Policies and Procedures

If you have any questions about the Anti-Money Laundering Policy and Procedures or any concerns regarding suspicious activity please contact your AML Compliance Officer.

EXAMPLES OF SUSPICIOUS ACTIVITY

When working with prospective clients you should be on the alert for any signs of unusual activity which might indicate intent to launder money. Here are examples of “red flags” that you should report:

-  Customers exhibiting unusual concern with Transamerica’s obligations to file reports of certain transactions with U.S. government agencies, or refusal to provide information required to prepare such reports.
-  Customers who request that a transaction be processed in such a manner so as to avoid Transamerica’s normal documentation requirements.
-  Customers who provide suspect or unverifiable identification or are hesitant to supply identifying information.
-  Customers who provide incomplete or confusing descriptions of the nature of their business.
-  Customers who wish to purchase multiple policies or who indicate funds will be deposited from multiple sources.
-  Large overpayment of premiums not consistent with the customer’s past payments. This is particularly suspicious if the customer requests a disbursement shortly after the payment.
-  Customers who make multiple payments, followed shortly thereafter by a request to surrender the policy.
-  Customer policy purchased in amounts considered beyond customer’s apparent means.
-  Payments submitted by an unrelated third-party.
-  Customers who have an association with, or have accounts in, a country identified as a haven for money laundering require extra due diligence.

WHERE TO REPORT SUSPICIOUS ACTIVITY

You may report suspicious activity to your Manager or directly to the Transamerica Financial Crimes toll free hotline number, (866) 622-5004.

Overview

BACKGROUND

The USA PATRIOT Act (the "Act") was enacted by U.S. Congress and signed into law by President George W. Bush on October 26, 2001. The Act is an acronym for Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism. This law, enacted in response to the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001, strengthens our nation's ability to combat terrorism and prevent and detect money-laundering activities.

In 2006, the U.S. Treasury Department mandated that all insurance companies implement an AML Compliance program for the company's "covered products," which includes any permanent life insurance policy (other than group), any annuity contract (other than group), or any other insurance product with features of cash value or investment.

In addition to the AML program, insurers are required to file Suspicious Activity Reports (SAR). The purpose of reporting a SAR is to assist law enforcement in the detection and prevention of money laundering and terrorist financing. The type of transactions this rule pertains to are those transactions that an insurance company knows, suspects or has reason to suspect involve funds that are derived from an illegal activity. Other transactions may include those designed to evade reporting requirements, or has no business or apparent lawful purpose and involves the use of the insurance company to facilitate criminal activity, including terrorist financing.

It is Transamerica's policy to comply with all laws and regulations designed to prevent the laundering of proceeds from illegal or criminal activity through legitimate financial institutions. Transamerica has established policies and procedures designed to reasonably prevent the laundering or facilitating of laundering of money from criminal activity. Transamerica monitors transactions for suspicious activity, which may indicate the existence of a crime. Transamerica must file reports to assist the government in investigating and prosecuting money laundering and terrorist financing activities.

As our sales agents, you play an important role in our prevention efforts by ensuring that we secure the proper information from applicants and by remaining alert for any signs that the applicants are engaging in money laundering or terrorist financing activities. Failure to comply with laws prohibiting money laundering or terrorist financing may result in significant criminal, civil or regulatory penalties or reputation harm that could ensue from any association with money laundering or terrorist financing activities.

MONEY LAUNDERING AND TERRORIST FINANCING DEFINED

Money laundering is a process through which the proceeds from illegal activity are 'washed' to legitimize them or disguise their true source. There are two basic definitions of money laundering within the federal government and the IRS:

- Taking the proceeds from an illegal activity and making them appear to be from a legal activity.
- Taking the proceeds from an illegal activity and hiding them or placing them beyond the reach of the government.

Terrorist financing involves the use of money, which may be lawfully obtained, to fund illegal activities. Because the transactions often have a legitimate origin and can often involve small amounts of money, terrorist financing can be more difficult to identify than money-laundering activities. However, an effective anti-money laundering program can help prevent the use of legal funds for terrorism activities.

THREE STAGES OF MONEY LAUNDERING

The basic money laundering process is accomplished via a three-stage method. These stages are known as placement, layering, and integration.

1. Placement Stage

During the placement stage of money laundering, the proceeds from illegal activity are first introduced into the financial system. The criminal or accomplice may make a single deposit, perhaps into a single premium life insurance policy or single premium deferred annuity, may pay premiums for a policy a year or more in advance, or break up large amounts of cash into less conspicuous smaller sums, typically less than $10,000. A series of monetary instruments (cashier checks, money orders, etc.) or a combination of cash and monetary instruments may also be deposited into an account at a financial institution or used to purchase a policy.

2. Layering Stage

The layering stage takes place after the funds have entered the financial system. In this stage the criminal or his accomplice tries to separate or distance the proceeds of the criminal activity from their origin through the use of complex financial transactions, such as converting cash into traveler's checks, money orders, wire transfers, letters of credit, stocks, bonds or by purchasing valuable assets, such as art or jewelry.

3. Integration Stage

The integration stage involves the use of apparently legitimate transactions to disguise the illicit proceeds, allowing the laundered funds to be disbursed back to the criminal. At this stage, the funds are moved back into mainstream economic activities. Following are three types of transactions typically used to accomplish integration:

- Loans or withdrawals from a life insurance or annuity;
- Surrendering of a life insurance or annuity;
- Cancellation of a life insurance policy during the free look period, especially where the policy was paid for with cash or a cash equivalent (money order, cashier's check, travelers check, or credit card).

MONEY LAUNDERING AND TERRORIST FINANCING EXAMPLES

Insurance companies can be used in all phases of money laundering schemes. The following are examples of money laundering and terrorist financing.

Example 1

A successful businessman contacted an insurance agent and stated that he owned a restaurant and had recently inherited a large sum of money from his grandmother. The businessman did not express a particular interest in the product features, but promised the agent substantial future business. Communication with the businessman was difficult because he was not available on the cell phone number he provided and he always had to return the agent's call. When pressed, the businessman was reluctant to provide information such as his personal address. To open the account the businessman stated that he would have the funds wired to the insurance company. The insurance company received a wire for $2,200,000 to fund a life insurance policy and three variable annuities. Two weeks later the insurance company received a request for a full surrender of the life insurance and annuities with the funds to be wired to another bank.

Example 2

Local police authorities were investigating the placement of cash by an illegal drug trafficker. The funds were deposited into several bank accounts and then transferred to an offshore account. The drug trafficker then purchased a $75,000 life insurance policy. Two separate wire transfer payments were made into the policy from the offshore accounts. The funds used for payment were purportedly the proceeds of overseas investments. At the time of the drug trafficker's arrest, the insurance company had received instructions for an early surrender of the policy.

Example 3

A terrorist group may establish a charity as a front for financing terrorist activity and open an annuity or key employee life contract with the charity as the owner. Funds can be moved in and out of the contracts under the guise of an investment for the charity, while funds are really being channeled towards a terrorist operation.

ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

The AML compliance program, at a minimum, must include the following:

1. Incorporate policies, procedures, and internal controls based upon Transamerica Life & Protection's assessment of the money laundering and terrorist financing risks associated with its covered products;
2. The designation of an AML Compliance Officer who will be responsible for ensuring that the AML program is being implemented effectively, including monitoring compliance of its agents and brokers, that the AML program is updated and appropriate persons are educated and trained regarding AML issues;
3. Provide for ongoing training of appropriate persons (including employees and independent agents/brokers) concerning their responsibilities under the program; and
4. Provide for independent testing to monitor and maintain an adequate program.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENT TRACKING, MONITORING AND REPORTING

Cash and cash equivalents can be used to launder money from illegal activities. The government can often trace this laundered money through the reports of cash and cash equivalent required of businesses. Cash is defined as U.S. coin or currency. Cash equivalents are defined as cashier's check, bank draft, traveler's check, or money order having a face amount of $10,000 or less, that is received either in a "designated reporting transaction" or in any transaction in which the recipient knows that the instrument is being used to avoid reporting of the transaction.

Transamerica maintains a database where payment by cash equivalents are entered and monitored for suspicious activity and reported to FinCEN via a SAR if appropriate.

KNOW YOUR CUSTOMER

One of the best defenses in any AML program is to "Know Your Customer". The full identification of our customer's and their business entities is important. Obtaining information of the source of funds used in a transaction and the source of a customer's wealth will help determine whether the customer transactions are within the scope of his/her capabilities or if they are suspicious. Identifying a customer's needs to determine the appropriateness of a product can help in this process. At this point, the application will be used to obtain the necessary information. If a customer attempts to circumvent any of the rules, the case should be evaluated with a more cautious eye.

OFFICE OF FOREIGN ASSETS CONTROL

The Office of Foreign Assets Control ("OFAC") of the U.S. Department of Treasury administers and enforces economic and trade sanctions against targeted foreign countries, terrorism sponsoring organizations and international narcotics traffickers based on U.S. foreign policy and national security goals.

All U.S. persons or "persons subject to the jurisdiction of the U.S." must comply with OFAC regulations. This includes: 1) U.S. citizens and lawful permanent residents, wherever they are located; 2) people, companies, and other entities located in the U.S. (including foreign branches, agencies and offices of overseas companies located in the U.S.); and 3) all US companies (including insurance companies, broker-dealers, reinsurers, investment companies and other financial institutions), including their foreign branches. Some of the existing sanctions (such as those pertaining to Trading with the Enemy Act), also require compliance by all foreign subsidiaries of US companies.

OFAC regulations provide that all insurance contracts, securities accounts or assets in which there is a direct/indirect interest by Specially Designated Nationals ("SDN"), blocked persons, or individuals/entities from countries covered by applicable sanctions must be "blocked" or "frozen" against further withdrawals, transfers, changes in beneficiary, etc. "Blocked" accounts must be segregated by the broker-dealer or held in a separate account from the general account of an insurer, reported to Treasury within 10 days of discovery and, going forward, credited interest at a rate comparable to an interest bearing account at a bank with a similar deposit and duration. Rights in these policies may not be transferred without authorization from OFAC this includes changes in beneficiaries, assignments or pledges of an insured's interest under a blocked policy.

CRIMINAL AND CIVIL LIABILITY FOR MONEY LAUNDERING

18 USC §1956 entitled “Laundering of monetary instruments” makes it a crime to knowingly conduct a “financial transaction” with proceeds of “specified unlawful activity” with intent to: Conceal/disguise proceeds, promote the “specified unlawful activity, evade taxes or evade reporting requirements. “Specified unlawful activity” is defined to include, on a list of more than 170 crimes including:

- drug trafficking
- bribery of federal officials
- tax evasion
- counterfeiting
- terrorism
- theft, embezzlement by a bank employee
- environmental crimes
- fraudulent loan or credit applications
- fraud by or against a foreign bank
- hostage taking
- mail theft
- gunrunning
- murder for hire

18 USC § 1957 makes it a crime to knowingly, engage in or attempt to engage in a transaction involving monies or property derived from a “specified unlawful activity” of a value greater than $10,000.

To establish a violation of §§1956 and 1957, the government must prove only that the person who conducted the transaction knew that the property involved was derived from an unlawful activity, not that the person who conducted or facilitated the transaction knew that the money derived from one of the specified unlawful activities or even from which criminal activity the money was derived. The standard of knowledge required is “actual knowledge” which, in many jurisdictions includes “willful blindness.” Willful blindness is the deliberate avoidance of knowledge of a crime, especially by failing to make a reasonable inquiry about suspected wrongdoing despite being aware that it is highly probable. Persons who ignore warning signs or “red flags” can be charged with and convicted of money laundering.

The penalties associated with money laundering are severe. Fines may be twice the amount of the transaction up to $1 million. Property involved in the transaction may also be subject to seizure and forfeiture. Employees of financial institutions can be fined individually and sentenced to up to 20 years of imprisonment for knowing or being willfully blind to the fact that the transaction involved illegal funds.

Filing reports of cash or currency transactions, or suspicious activity detected by a company or individual will not excuse criminal liability for participating in money laundering. However, voluntary reports of suspicious activity and cooperation in any subsequent investigations into suspicious activity are among the mitigating factors outlined in prosecutorial discretion guidelines.

The Federal Sentencing Commission has promulgated binding sentencing guidelines to be imposed on any individual defendant or organization found guilty of any federal criminal offense, including money laundering. These guidelines took effect November 1, 1987 and provide that any corporation that adopts and implements a compliance program in line with the guidelines, can reduce by 30 -92%, fines and penalties associated with criminal activity, and avoid mandatory court-ordered probation.

Federal law requires you be advised that in connection with your application for appointment with Transamerica Casualty Insurance Company, Transamerica Financial Life Insurance Company, Transamerica Life Insurance Company, and/or Transamerica Premier Life Insurance Company, (each individually referred to as “the Company”) for the purpose of selling its products, a consumer report and/or investigative consumer report may be prepared, whereby information is obtained through credit reporting agencies, previous employers, and regulatory, state and local law enforcement databases and others. Such information is used along with other criteria to help evaluate suitability for representing the Company’s products.

You have a right to request disclosure of the nature and scope of the investigation upon written request to our Administrative Office made within a reasonable time after the receipt of this notice. A Summary of Your Rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act is attached hereto.

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under the FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, DC 20552.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment - or to take another adverse action against you - must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your "file disclosure"). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
 - a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
 - you are the victim of identify theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
 - your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
 - you are on public assistance
 - you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.

In addition, all consumers are entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for additional information.

- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.
- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for an explanation of dispute procedures.
- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.
- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.
- Access to your file is limited. A Consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need – usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to an employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.
- You may limit “prescreened” offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited “prescreened” offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you chose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-567-8688.
- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or in some cases a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.

- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. For information about your federal rights contact:

FOR PRODUCERS AND EMPLOYEES OF
the Transamerica Companies¹
(the “Company”)

Revised June 2012

As a Company, we are committed to treating our customers fairly and ethically. That is why we have adopted this Code for our producers and employees. Our producers (the individuals and firms authorized to sell our products) have a responsibility to treat our customers fairly and ethically. Our employees—who support our producers and serve our mutual customers—share that responsibility and trust. The Company applies the following Principles to its markets and lines of business.

PRINCIPLES

The Company commits itself, in all of its markets and business, to:

- Conduct business according to high standards of honesty and fairness and to treat our customers as we would expect to be treated.
- Provide competent and customer-focused sales and service.
- Compete fairly.
- Provide advertising and sales material that is clear, honest and fair.
- Handle customer complaints and disputes fairly and promptly.
- Maintain a system of supervision and monitoring reasonably designed to demonstrate the Company’s commitment to and compliance with these principles.

¹ “Transamerica Companies”, as used in this Code, refers to the life insurance companies and any non-securities affiliates of the Transamerica group of companies. This Code applies to those companies and to their products, including insurance products and non-insurance products. This Code does not apply to our securities affiliates (e.g., affiliated broker-dealers, investment advisers, transfer agents, mutual fund complexes, investment companies and life insurance company separate accounts) because they are each required by their securities regulators to have their own unique compliance framework, policies and procedures.

In addition, the Company has adopted the following Policies specific to the Company's products (referred to as "Products").

POLICIES

It is the policy of the Company, in the sale of Products, to:

- Meet the needs of its customers.
 - The Company will enter into transactions which assist customers in meeting their needs and objectives.
 - The Company will have procedures designed to reasonably assure that recommendations made by producers (or by the Company if no producer is involved in the sale) to purchase individual annuity and long-term care Products are suitable based upon relevant information obtained from customers.
 - The Company will maintain a process to comply with laws and regulations that are related to this Code in the marketing and sale of Products.
 - The Company, in cooperation with consumers, regulators, producers and others, will proactively seek to improve the industry's practices for marketing and sales of Products.

 - The Company will have appropriate criteria or guidelines for selecting producers and appropriate employees of good character and business repute who have appropriate qualifications.
 - The Company will ensure that producers are licensed, appointed (where necessary), and meet other applicable state requirements required to solicit the Company's Products.
 - Training will be provided or made available to producers and appropriate employees, on how to comply with laws and regulations, with Company procedures, and with this Code, in the marketing and sale of Products, as appropriate to the distribution system.
 - Information will be provided or made available to producers and appropriate employees about the Company's applicable Product(s) and the features and operation of the product(s). The information may be provided or made available through various methods, including: sales, marketing, or other descriptive product materials; manuals; training or training materials; software; Web sites or system-based information; or other appropriate means.
 - The Company will encourage producers and appropriate employees to participate in continuing education designed to provide current knowledge regarding products, industry issues and emerging trends.

POLICIES (con't)

- Compete fairly.
 - The Company will engage in fair and active competition in the marketing and sales of its Products. To accomplish this, the Company, and, where appropriate, its producers and its employees involved in the sales process, will:
 - a) Maintain compliance with the applicable state and federal laws fostering fair competition; and
 - b) Refrain from disparaging competitors.
 - Where the sale of an Insurance Product involves a replacement, the Company and, where appropriate, its producers will:
 - a) Provide consumers with information they need to ascertain whether a replacement is appropriate—including reasons why replacement might not be appropriate; and
 - b) Have procedures to review replacement activity which include a system for tracking, identifying and addressing deviations from the Company's replacement policies and procedures.
- Sell fairly and use clear and accurate sales materials.
 - Advertising and sales material that is designed to lead to sales or solicitation of the Company's Products should be presented in a manner consistent with the needs of the customer. Such advertising and sales material will be based upon the principles of fair dealing and good faith and will have a sound basis in fact.
 - Such materials that are presented as part of a sale are clear and understandable in light of the complexity of the product being sold.
 - Such materials are not permitted to be used in the sale of the Company's Products unless and until they are reviewed and approved by the Company for compliance with this Code and with applicable laws and regulations related to advertising, unfair trade practices, sales illustrations and other similar provisions.
 - The Company will maintain procedures designed to reasonably assure that sales illustrations or other representations of premiums and considerations, costs, values and benefits are accurate, fair, and complete and contain appropriate disclosures. Where appropriate, guaranteed and non-guaranteed elements will be clearly identified, distinguished and explained.
