

Many companies are
opening their doors
again soon.

Will your customers know you're one
of them?

We've all weathered a long storm together. Some are still going through it. But for many of us around the country, it's time to open the doors again and get back out there. Before that, though, ask yourself: How will you let your customers know you're ready for to begin "business as usual" again? Do you have a plan to communicate with your audience about your re-opening strategy? Cicada can help. We've been helping our customers plan since this all started.
