

Hospital Indemnity Insurance

Policy Highlight Sheet

A hospital stay can be traumatic – to your health, your wallet, and your family. Even if you have additional medical insurance, you will most likely have costs that aren't covered. That's when a Medico Insurance Company Hospital Indemnity insurance plan can provide you with supplemental cash benefits to use as needed.

This policy has limitations and exclusions. Preexisting conditions are not covered during the first six months after the policy date. Policy availability, exclusions, and limitations may vary by state. See the plan in your state for complete details.

The policyholder has 30 days after receiving the policy to examine it and return it to Medico or to the producer if they are dissatisfied. Medico will refund the premium, less any claims paid, and void the policy. (In Kansas and Virginia, Medico will refund the premium and void the policy.) This flyer is intended to provide a general description of the policy benefits. Policy provisions and benefits may vary from state to state. Please see the policy and riders for complete details. For costs and further details of the coverage, including exclusions, restrictions, or limitations and the terms under which the policy may be continued in force or discontinued, see your producer or contact Medico. Preexisting conditions are not covered during the first six months after the policy date (may vary by state). To be eligible for benefits, you must receive medically necessary covered care, as defined in the policy.

This is a solicitation of insurance, and a licensed agent/producer may contact you. THIS IS A LIMITED POLICY. If there is a discrepancy between the flyer and the contract, the contract language prevails.

This policy is not major medical insurance and is not a substitute for major medical insurance. It does not qualify as minimum essential health coverage under the Federal Affordable Care Act. If you purchase this policy only, you will not satisfy the federal requirement that you have health coverage, which is in effect beginning Jan. 1, 2014.
